Former Groton Resident Dies at Aberdeen Hospital

Mrs. Donald W. Rouse, a former Groton resident before moving to Aberdeen, died at St. Luke's hospital Monday morning, following a brief illness.

Grace Ann Kindlespire Rouse was born on July 14, 1900, at Terril, Iowa. She came to South Dakota in 1911. On March 22, 1922, she was married to Donald W. Rouse at Leola, where they established their home. They later moved to Groton and to Aberdeen in 1943. Mrs. Rouse had been employed as a saleslady in Groton and Aberdeen. She was a member of the Methodist church and of the Methodist ladies' circle.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday, at the Gates Funeral Home, in Aberdeen, with the Rev. Dr. Harold G. Trost officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Survivors besides her husband, are a daughter, Mrs. Frank Hoesing, Minneapolis; her mother, Mrs. Henry Kindlespire, Forbes, N. D.; three brothers, George and Arthur Kindlespire, Forbes, N. D., and Don of Sioux Falls, and one grandson. She was preceded in death by her father and one sister.
